NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

DATE: November 4, 2018

TO: News Media Contacts

FROM: Andrew Howell, Commissioner of Elections

RE: Voter Turnout Prediction and Other Voter Information for tomorrow's General Election

Shawnee County Election Commissioner Andrew Howell is expecting a 64.5% voter turnout in the General Election being held tomorrow, November 6th. The 2014 General Gubernatorial Election turnout was 59.2%. The voter turnout for the 2010 General Gubernatorial was 54.4%. The average for gubernatorial elections since 2002 was 60.2%.

Election Commissioner Howell is also reminding voters of the following items for voter's going to the Polling Place on Election Day:

- By state law, there is no voting at the Election Office on Election Day. If voters come to the Election Office to vote they will be directed to their polling place since early voting at the Election Office ended today at noon per state statute.
- Voters should note the location of their voting place. Voters may verify their voting place by calling the Election Office at (785) 251-5900 or online at: <https://myvoteinfo.voteks.org/VoterView/PollingPlaceSearch.do>. It's important for voters to go to their assigned polling location as only that polling place will have the voter's correct ballot. Each precinct has a unique ballot due to the configuration of districts.
- Voters should be aware of road construction and street closures to and around their voting place. Alternate routes or access may be necessary in some cases and some voters may want to consider the convenience of early voting or preplanning their route to their polling place.
- Voters may also view their Sample Ballots online at: <https://myvoteinfo.voteks.org/VoterView/RegistrantSearch.do>.

Anyone with any questions concerning their voter registration status may call the Election Office at (785) 251-5900. Additional information is also available on the Shawnee County Election website at <http://www.snco.us/election/>. Voters who require assistance should also call the Election Office.
